Experience

Rockstar Games | Web Developer | July 2023 - June 2025

- Accelerated game production by developing a web-based authoring tool that enabled writers to edit in-game communications, user profiles, and character data with full read/write access.
- Modernized internal workflows by leading the creation of a central hub app used daily by multiple art teams; established coding standards for the transition to TypeScript, React, Next.js, and Redux.
- Optimized backend performance by building a microservice in Node.js/Express that consolidated data from two APIs, reducing logic and processing load for client applications.
- Improved data management by developing a C#/.NET API with MongoDB to handle employee data (roles, access levels, and permissions), documented via Swagger.
- Standardized technology adoption by delivering a trademarks encyclopedia app (Vue.js + C# backend) that set the technical foundation for future team projects.

Shopify | Software Developer | May 2022 - May 2023

- Maintained and enhanced the billing experience within Shopify's mobile web app, ensuring a seamless, native-like UI for merchants.
- Collaborated with the Polaris design system team to align UI components with Shopify's in-house framework, delivering consistent branding and user experience.
- Built and optimized front-end features using TypeScript and React, adapting complex billing workflows to mobile web views.
- Developed and supported backend services with Ruby, GraphQL, and SQL to handle data-intensive billing operations.
- Contributed to cross-team initiatives, ensuring billing integrations remained stable, scalable, and performant across mobile platforms.
